

UNREALITY
SERMON
SUBJECT

The lesson-sermon at the first Church of Christ Scientist, 1750 Manuel avenue, this Sunday will be titled "Unreality."

John, the Baptist, in describing the coming of Christ Jesus says in Matthew (3:11, 12), "He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: Whose fan is in his hand," and adds that he will separate the wheat (facts) from the chaff (fables). The golden text for the lesson-sermon is taken from I Corinthians 7, verse 31, "The fashion of this world passeth away."

CHANNING DISCUSSES
CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

George Channing, C.S.B. of San Francisco, California, addressed a local audience in Torrance last Thursday, when he spoke on "Christian Science: Its Assurance of Guidance to Men."

"Salvation follows right thinking; and the Christ impels us to think rightly," Channing stated, continuing as follows: "The voice behind thee, which is the right or spiritual idea of being, the Christ of God, is forever saying: 'This is the way: say 'yes' to Spirit and 'no' to matter, say 'yes' to divine Mind and 'no' to mortal, so-called mind.'"

"And this voice is being heard with regenerative and restorative effect by all that even desires to love God, Spirit, and honestly strives to put that desire into effect.

Disease is the manifestation of unspiritual thinking — not somebody's thinking, but hypnotic, mortal mind's illusory thought claiming to belong to somebody.

Just as vapor seems by a process to resolve itself into liquid and liquid into fluid, so mortal thought seems to resolve itself into matter, and matter into maladjustment, disease, limitation, and obstruction.

Decide against mortal thought (or, more accurately, recognize your complete separateness from mortal thought), and you decide against disease; decide for (or, more accurately, recognize your unity with) divine Mind, and you decide for health."

Prayer Said For Recovery Of President

The Democratic Breakfast Club, at a meeting in Daniels Cafe in Gardena Sunday morning, September 25, expressed regret regarding the illness of President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

A moment of silent prayer for his recovery was observed. It was felt that at such times the Democratic party shall rise above partisan politics, and a resolution to this effect was passed unanimously, according to William L. Wilson, press chairman.

The club was assembled primarily to plan the forthcoming dinner in honor of our congressman, Cecil R. King, to be held in the Torrance Civic Auditorium on November 12.

The members of the Democratic Breakfast Club come from clubs all over the 17th Congressional District, and many are delegates to the 17th C. D. Council, Wilson said.

'Eternal Life' Sermon Title This Sunday

The Chancel Choir will sing "Ave Verum" by Mozart, and Eva Brundin, organist, will offer "Communion" and "Contemplation" by Gullmant.

Also sharing in this world-wide observance of the Lord's Supper will be thirty-five young people, who will join in Holy Communion at Big Pines YMCA camp in the San Bernardino mountains. This service will be the climax of a week-end planning retreat in which the year's program for the senior high M.Y.F. and the Wesley Fellowship will be planned. Rev. Don Shelby, Mr. and
